

UNICEF- Rights Respecting Schools

We are proud to share that The Warwickshire Academy has recently achieved the Silver: Rights Aware award through UNICEF Rights Respecting Schools programme. This recognition reflects our ongoing commitment to embedding children's rights into every aspect of school life. unicef.org.uk/rights-respecting-schools/

Achieving the Silver: Rights Aware award through the UNICEF Rights Respecting Schools programme recognises that we have made good progress in putting children's rights at the heart of The Warwickshire Academy. It shows that the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) is not just something we learn about, but something we actively begin to live and experience across our school community.

At Silver level, The Warwickshire Academy has demonstrated that children's rights are understood and valued, students and staff have a growing understanding of the UNCRC and can talk about rights and why they are important. Rights are beginning to shape school life and we are embedding rights into our policies, curriculum and daily interactions, creating a positive, respectful environment where everyone feels valued.